Pittsfield at New London-Manager McCann of Planters Expects to Have Good Team-Strong Outfield-Six of Last Year's Team are Back.

The fans around this section will be glad today when Manager McCann of the New London baseball team throws out the first bail at New London has starts the Eastern association baseball league in full swing.

He has secared this year a team that will bear watching in the centest for the pennant. Although the Planters finished in the fifth place last year, Manager McCann is bound that they will be up among the topnotchers this season. The team has had quite a few changes and only six of last vear's team will be on the payroll this year. Of last year's vets, there are Rock, shortstop: Foye, catcher; Daniels, Powers and Radebaugh on the firing line, and Briggs in the left garden.

The retirement of Spencer left a hole on first base, but this will be filled by a man turned over to Manager McCann by the Yankees, Quinn. With the following infelders, the infield will be sewed up very tight: Warner, second base: Rock, shortstop, and Marhelka on rhird.

Christy Matherson piloted the Giants to 37 wins four years later and then hung up a National League record of 41 wins almost was equalled by Ed. Walsh of the White Sox in 1908, the big spitball expert coming through with 40 triumphs. The third best record in the American league is held by Walter Johnson of Washington, who, while winning a Chalmers car last year captured 36 contests. Joe Wood of the Red Sox, the year previous, annexed 34. American leaguers who have won 32 games in a season are Johnson and Cy Young, while Jack Coombs and Cy succeeded in winning 31 games in a campaign.

STOCK PRICES HIGHER. Complete Reversal on Favorable Shift in Mexican Situation.

New York, April 27-The shift in the Mexican situation caused a com-plete reversal in the stock market to-day. The proposal for mediation and Huerta's reported acceptance came at a time when the market had been sold out and was in an exceptionally strong position technically. It was strong position technically. It was owing to this condition of affairs that the market made such a swift and de-cided response as came today. Shorts were stampeded and for half and hour after the opening trading was excited. Pirst prices were one to four points

OXFORD RUNNERS VICTORIOUS. Jackson Won From McCurdy By Few Inches.

Oxford university of England won the four-mile college relay champion-ship of America from the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, Saturday in the most sensational finish ever seen in that event in the seventeen years the race has been run on Franklin Field. The English team had to fight all the way and won by a scant eight inches.

Jackson, Olympic 1,500 meter champion, the anchor man of the English team, was pushed to the limit of human endurance by McCurdy, of Pennsylvania, the two-mile inter-collegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the inter-collegiate champion and the says that he is now until May 26th.

the Pennsylvania relays. The American and world's record is held by Cornell, 17 minutes 55 seconds. The track was very heavy and experts believed it to be about five seconds slow

So close was the race between Jack son and McCurdy that it was several minutes before the spectators could learn who had won. The men came into the home stretch shoulder to shoulder. Thirty yards from the tape McCurdy led by about a foot. Cap-tain Jackson made a last desperate effort to take the lead and just man-aged to shove his shoulder ahead of McCurdy, who was close to the pole. Then he swerved slightly in toward the pole until the shoulders of the two were almost touching Jackson's just in front. This was their position at the tape.
